

The college follows norms regarding teaching very strictly and scrupulously. Monitoring of engagement of lectures, following of course contents, completion of syllabi, satisfaction level of students are taken into account.

The college designs policies and programmes and chooses themes for extension activities in such a manner that the society is benefitted. The subject matter is associated with concerning social issue to convince the students about its relevance. It is taken care that aptitude for social welfare is also developed along with studies. Workshops are conducted on themes like Powder Coating Technology, Computer Operations and Self Defence Tactics and the students are urged to further the guidance to the people in their respective areas. Certain co-curricular activities are organized in association with local bodies so that the local people are also benefitted. The guidance of some resourceful persons in local and nearby areas is sought while preparing certain projects and assignments. The local people are also involved into the preparations.